IN NO DANGER AT TIE PASS

RUSSIANS CLAIM A SAFE RETREAT.

Japanese Too Exhausted to Press Their Victory—Not a Refuge, However, According to Other Reports.

JAPANESE REPORTS.

With Japanese Left Armies, March 13. (Delayed)—From noon until darkness yesterday the left column of Oku's army fought a desperate fight near Likampau. Russian forces outnumbered the Japanese three to one. Russians rushed from their trenches to meet the advancing Japanese forces and a hand to hand fight ensued; soldiers using bayonets and officers their swords. Russian casualties were over 10,000 killed and wounded, while the Japanese lost a little over 3,000. Russian dead were left on the field in heaps, among them many staff officers.

Tokio, March 14.—Headquarters in the field reports: In the direction of Sing Ching our forces have been dislodging the enemy from Ying Pan, eighteen miles east of Fushun, and on the 11th occupied that place. In the direction of the Shaku river all our forces are continuing the pursuit of the remnant of the enemy, many Russian officers and men surrendering to our train guards in the mountain districts east of the Tie pass road. Additional spoils have been taken in the direction of the Shaku river and at Sing Ching are wagons and carts containing a large amount of ammunition, tents and various military supplies.

Kuroki's Headquarters, March 14.—The country is swarming with hungry, disheartened Russians who are surrendering in squads to any pursuing Japanese force they meet. Most of the foreign attaches with the Russian army, including two American and English officers, were captured at Mukden.

Kuroki's Headquarters, March 13.—The greater part of the retreating Russians are supposed to have reached Tie pass. Pursuing Japanese have frequent encounters with the rear guard. Kuropatkin must remove his supplies from Tie pass, if he plans retirement to Harbin. Russians have no stores between Tie pass and Harbin.

WORD FROM KUROPATKIN.

St. Petersburg, March 14.—Kuropatkin, in a dispatch dated yesterday, says he has received no further report of any fighting between organized bodies of troops and announces the Japanese are making reconnaissances. He adds General Meyendorff fell from his horse and fractured his collar bone.

IN NO DANGER.

St. Petersburg, March 14.—According to information received by the war office, the remnants of Kuropatkin's army have made good their retreat and are not in immediate danger of a new turning movement north of Tie pass. The Japanese are reported to be completely exhausted by their long, hard fight and are compelled to rest and undertake the tasks of burying their dead and looking after the wounded, prisoners and plunder. The war office admits Kuropatkin has not furnished specific information as to the whereabouts of General Kawamura, who has been reported to be northeast of Tie pass, or of the Japanese columns said to be pushing north by forced marches west of the railroad. While Kuropatkin has assumed full responsibility for accepting battle at Mukden, he has complained to the emperor his plans miscarried, largely through the failure of two generals, whose names cannot be learned, to execute his orders. He also throws blame on some of the troops which failed to respond properly at the critical moment.

The war council held at Tsarskoe Selo to day, at which War Minister Sakharoff, General Dragomiroff and others were present, is understood to have decided the question of continuing the war in the affirmative. Ways and means were discussed, but a decision on some points, it is understood, was reserved. The question of Kuropatkin's successor was discussed, but the emperor made no final decision.

RECALL DENIED.

The recall of the second Pacific squadron is semi-officially denied.

London, March 15.—The Mail declares the French government has given Parliament banking houses to clearly understand that they must not conclude the proposed Russian loan unless Russia is prepared to negotiate for peace.

AT A HOSPITAL.

Baltimore, Md., March 14.—Mrs. Leslie M. Shaw, wife of the secretary of the treasury, was operated on to day for a serious ailment at a private sanitarium. The operation was performed by Dr. Howard Kelly and was reported to be successful. Secretary Shaw was at the sanitarium during the operation.

A HOPEFUL SIGN.

London, March 15.—The revolt of the French bankers in denying a loan to Russia is regarded by the London newspapers as the most hopeful and important news of the day, promising early conclusion of peace between Russia and Japan.

LITTLE CHANCE FOR TREATY

SAN COMINGO MATTER IN THE SENATE

Republicans Unable to Muster Quite Votes Enough to Ratify the Convention—Washington News

SENATE.

Washington, March 14.—Discussion of the Dominican treaty in executive session of the senate to day, resulted in drawing of party lines. Democrats that have been reported as likely to support the treaty will return to the opposition fold. It is said, and on both sides of the chamber it is admitted that there is little prospect that the convention will be ratified. Republicans have been depending on some Democratic support and have counted on certain votes of Senators McEnery and Foster of Louisiana and Clarke of Arkansas. Senator Gorman, the minority leader, gave notice to day that these senators are now pledged against the treaty. The Republicans had planned to recall absentees, but it was reported to night that even with the full Republican strength present, the necessary two-thirds for ratification could not be mustered if there is no defection of Democratic votes. The depletion of the Republican ranks by vacancies in Missouri and Delaware, the absence of Senator LaFollette, who has not taken the oath of office, and of Senators Aldrich and Knox is felt greatly by the Republicans, who are striving for favorable action on treaty. A canvass of the senate did not develop the necessary two-thirds affirmative votes, even counting all Republicans as present or paired. If the statement of the Democrats that there will be no division in their party proves correct, or the two Louisiana senators and Clarke of Arkansas should vote against the treaty there is no chance for ratification.

TRouble AHEAD.

London, March 15.—The correspondent at St. Petersburg of the Telegraph predicts that Russia will have to battle with an angry sea of troubles in the mobilization of a new army. The correspondent relates as an example that a few days ago an attempt to mobilize Cosacks in the Kuban district of Caucasus met with flat disobedience and that the employment of force led to serious bloodshed.

A CONSPIRACY.

The Times' correspondent at Tokio reports that a conspiracy has been discovered at Seoul to induce the emperor of Korea to repudiate the Japanese convention and seek refuge in the foreign legation. The conspirators have been arrested.

KUROPATKIN'S RESIGNATION.

Paris, March 15.—The correspondent at St. Petersburg of the Petit Parisien says General Kuropatkin's resignation has been accepted and that Grand Duke Nicholas has consented to take the chief command in Manchuria.

A NEW PLAN

An Id. a Proposed to Let the

Czar Out of His Present Situation

Situation

St. Petersburg, March 15.—A bold way out of the perplexities of the present situation has been suggested; namely: That Emperor Nicholas travel in state to the ancient capital of Moscow, summon the nobles and leading members of the zemstvos around him in the sacred precincts of the Kremlin, frankly lay the situation before them, publicly pledge his word for the execution of projected reforms and make a stirring personal appeal through them to the people to rally to the support of Russian arms and co-operate in prosecuting the war to a successful termination.

NO DISSENSION.

Chicago, March 14.—Francis B. Loomis, first assistant secretary of state, who was in Chicago to night on his way to California, speaking of Santo Domingo affairs, said:

"Reports from Washington, which appear to have had considerable currency in the last twenty-four hours, to the effect that there is friction in the department of state at Washington caused by conflicting views on the part of officers with regard to the treatment of Santo Domingo affairs, are wholly without foundation. There is no dissension in the department of state concerning Dominican or any other matters, nor has there been at any time."

FIRE LOSSES.

Chicago, March 14.—Fire to day destroyed the printing and box departments of the Grand Crossing Tack company's plant causing $300,000 damage. There was a panic among the 800 employees, which included many women and children, but all escaped in safety.

TRAFFIC IMPROVING.

New York, March 14.—Traffic on the elevated railroads and subway to day was slightly improved over yesterday, striking employees of the Interborough company, whose wages had been previously advanced because of a long strike, secured a temporary employment on a sacrifice of whatever advance they had obtained.

GAS VICTIMS.

Chicago, March 14.—Mrs. Samuel Friedman and her brother-in-law, Pava Friedman, are dead from asphyxiation and Samuel Friedman is dying as the result of an accident to a gas plant in the Friedman flat. In some way the rubber hose which supplies gas to the plant was disconnected.

A SETTLEMENT MADE.

Monmouth, Ill., March 14.—A settlement was effected to day in the injunction proceedings preventing the Standard Oil company from building a pipe line through Warren county without permission of the supervisors. The injunction will be dismissed and the company resume work at once. Details of the settlement are withheld.

AT A HOSPITAL.

Baltimore, Md., March 14.—Mrs. Leslie M. Shaw, wife of the secretary of the treasury, was operated on to day for a serious ailment at a private sanitarium. The operation was performed by Dr. Howard Kelly and was reported to be successful. Secretary Shaw was at the sanitarium during the operation.

A NEW THEORY

Possibility that Mrs. Stanford Died a Natural Death and Not by Poison

Honolulu, March 14.—That Mrs. Jane I. Stanford died a natural death probably will be the conclusion of those who are now investigating the case. President David Starr Jordan, of Stanford university, has expressed the opinion that Mrs. Stanford's death was not due to strychnine poisoning. He is a doctor of medicine and says that since he has learned the amount of strychnine taken by Mrs. Stanford was not beyond a medicine dose she was not poisoned. Dr. Jordan has been assisting the detectives to the extent of suggesting questions as a physician during their inquiries regarding her symptoms and the results of the autopsy.

RUSSIA'S WAR LOAN.

Paris, March 14.—Inquiry to day at the three banks principally interested in the proposed new Russian loan brought the response it had been decided to postpone the issue. The Journal des Debats says: "Many people consider adjournment to be evidence Russia has reached the end of her resources."

HARPER GOES TO NEW YORK.

Chicago, March 14.—President V. S. Harper, of the University of Chicago, left to day for New York city, where he will be the guest of John D. Rockefeller, after which he will receive the X-ray treatment for cancer at Lakewood, N. J.

WOULD AVERT FAMINE.

London, March 14.—In the house of commons to day, John Redmond, in supporting Mr. Flanagan's motion charging the government with failure to anticipate distress in Ireland, urged the government to take immediate steps to avert the impending famine. Unless a remedy be found, he said, there would be no peace, and there ought not to be peace. The land act of 1903, Redmond asserted, had utterly failed to settle the problem and the tide of emigration would not cease until the grazing lands of the west had been restored to the people. Existing conditions of things, he further said, were infamous and cruel, and had made English rule in Ireland abhorrent to humanity.

Atkinson, attorney general for Ireland, in defending the government, admitted the enormity of the evil, but said difficulty of solving the problem was appalling, reciting measures already taken, including the expenditure of $6,000,000 by congested districts board. He said that it was most unjust to say that the government had not taken every precaution to meet distress.

REVIVED THE DEAD

Remarkable Resuscitation of a Woman Whose Life was Declared Extinct.

St. Louis, March 14.—After being pronounced dead by two physicians and a nurse, Mrs. Charles A. Sweet was revived by an infusion of salt solution into her veins and she is now believed to be recovering her health. Five weeks ago Mrs. Sweet, suffering from gastritis, went to Arkansas in the hope of recovery. On the night of Feb. 13 she seemed to be dying and eventually the heart appeared to cease beating and respiration became undetectable. She was pronounced dead. A third physician decided to try a salt solution infusion, and there followed the signs of animation. The operation was continued and Mrs. Sweet was revived. She has returned to her home in St. Louis, and is improving in health.

PLUNDERED ESTATE.

St. Petersburg, March 14.—The estate of the late Grand Duke Sergius, near Moscow, has been pillaged by peasants, and a factory in the same district was burned down.

DEATHS.

Monte Carlo, March 14.—Marquis Anghel died here to day.

FOUND GUILTY.

New Brunswick, N. J., March 14.—Rev. J. Frank Cordova, who eloped twice with Julia Boyne, one of his choir singers, to night was found guilty of abandoning his wife. Cordova appeared to be greatly shaken by the verdict. He will probably be sentenced Friday.

FAILURES.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 14.—On petition of three creditors, E. F. Zillisch, of Hustford, Wis., has been forced into bankruptcy. It is said that Zillisch owes money on notes contracted by himself and his two sons amounting to $45,000.

STORY OF THE MUKDEN BATTLE

ORDER RESTORED AND AN ACCOUNT GIVEN

Valor of the Russian Troops Extolled—New Position at Tie Pass—Advantage the Japanese Now Have.

Tie Pass, March 14.—As after the battle of Liao Yang, the advance of the Japanese army against the new positions of the Russians at Tie pass is slow. The leading columns are eight or ten miles southward and in touch with the Russian van posts, but the operations at present are not serious.

Field marshal Oyama shows slight intention of pressing his advantage in an immediate attack on Tie pass. It is possible, however, that the wide turning movement, of which reports are current, is in progress. In such operations the Japanese have the immense advantage of several bases and lines of supply to which is now added the Shimmin road, while the Russian army necessarily is dependent on one base and one line of communication, and therefore may easily be outflanked.

In the grand army, order is making out of chaos with remarkable celerity. The plain in front of Tie pass, which on March 11 seemed like a nest of ants with a dense and confused mass of transports, artillery and troops, corps, divisions and regiments being scattered and parties inextricably mingled has been cleared, the regiments have been reorganized, stragglers sent to their respective commands, organizations have taken their assigned positions, and to day the same soldiers who on March 10 became a terror striking, surging, disorganized mass of gray at a few shots from a little detachment of Japanese, or who even fled in panic, firing indiscriminately in all directions as they ran at the mere baseless cry of "Japanese cavalry," are now gathered slinging about camp fires with new courage, ready to oppose with stubborn resistance an attack on Tie pass.

It is unfair to accuse the entire army of this panic. General Linovitch entered Tie pass with his regiments in perfect order, with music playing and men singing and bravely a struggle was lost in the long difficult march. Other organizations made equally praiseworthy retreats and especially the rear guards of all armies who performed their difficult task steadily and resolutely. There is much to be said also for this panic stricken condition of the troops. They were largely composed of undisciplined men, and wagon drivers were mingled with the soldiers, who for fifteen days were under fire, crowded together in a mass whence egress was impossible.

The struggle for possession of Mukden cost both sides close on 200,000 men. The Russian loss of officers includes a large proportion of regimental commanders and field officers.

All newspaper correspondents with the exception of three or four, have left for the north, because there is nowhere to live and nothing to eat. Chagrined by defeat, many Russian officers are in a surly mood and much of their grudgingly given information is colored with a jealous and rampant spirit of cabal.

It is, however, possible now to give a general view of the battle and a connected story emerging out of the confusion incident to the evacuation of Mukden and forced retreat of the army.

On Feb. 21, was ready for the attack westward. Various northern detachments had been disposed for an advance on the right flank. Suddenly in the evening of that day the order to advance was cancelled and a second order was given for the transfer of General Rennenkampf's first Siberian corps and several other organizations to the east flank, which was being pressed heavily by a large force of Japanese. From that time forward the Japanese, who were well informed by all Russian movements, began heavy attacks along the whole front. Russians generally held their ground, doing well until Feb. 23, when an unexpected attack developed in the southwest, before which the Russian right, weakened by withdrawal of almost two corps, yielded.

By March 1 it became evident that the Japanese were moving around the Russian right in five heavy columns, and it became imperative to withdraw the troops across the southwest and form a new line from the bridge across the Sha river parallel with the railway. The change of front was accomplished with remarkable celerity, but various organizations became badly mixed.

Russians on March 4 occupied their former positions on the Sha river as far as the bridge, thence to Madyapu, on the Hun river, and thence parallel with the railway, six miles distant, the right resting on the Shimmin road. Japanese on March 5 began to turn even this position with the view to cutting off retreat. The Russian right was extended eastward from the Shimmin road to the railway. On the 7th both sides began vigorous offensive operations. Japanese attacking with special energy the forces of General Tserptsky, which were holding the position from Madyapu as far as the heights east of Mukden station, while the Russians under General Gengeros seemed to

WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Illinois Legislature Has a Measure Before It for Female Rights.

Springfield, March 14.—The Illinois house committee on elections to day voted to support the house woman's suffrage bill, giving women the right to vote for members of the state board of equalization, board of assessors, board of review, sanitary district trustees and for all officers of cities, towns and villages, except police magistrates.

All afternoon the committee listened to speeches from a large delegation of club and other women from various parts of the state and at the end of the arguments voted 14 to 6 to report the bill to the house and let the responsibility for its death rest with that body.

The members of the Illinois senate committee on appropriations believe that the state convicts could manufacture binding twine to be sold direct to farmers at a good profit to the state and at the same time solve the question of employment for convicts. A bill will soon be presented in the senate carrying a small appropriation for the establishment of a small plant in one of the state penal institutions for the manufacture of binding twine. In the Minnesota state penitentiary at Stillwater 25 convicts are employed in the manufacture of binding twine. This plant cost Minnesota $60,000, and last year it yielded a profit to the state of $112,000.

MOTHERS' CONGRESS

Senator Dubois of Idaho Speaks of Polygamy and Denounces Mormonism

Washington, March 14.—Senator Fred T. Dubois, of Idaho, talked to the National Mother congress on the "Purity of the Home." His speech was chiefly a historical review of Mormonism in the United States and a severe arraignment of the doctrines and practices of the Mormon organization. He declared with emphasis that there should be no toleration of the present teachings and practices of Mormonism. "Mormonism" was a "decided, if not the greatest, single menace which confronted us as a people," said Dubois, "has vastly increased until now, in addition to controlling Utah, they hold the balance of power in Idaho and Wyoming, and are spreading over and threatening Oregon and Nevada, and have, following on the heels of their conquests in other states, begun to establish themselves in polygamous practices. It is impossible now to elect a senator from Utah, Idaho or Wyoming who will openly oppose the methods or practices of the governing power of the Mormon church."

"Notwithstanding the testimony which Joseph P. Smith gave before the senate committee, no one has the temerity in Utah to undertake to prosecute him and it is utterly impossible to enforce the laws of Utah against him. The political power of this church is becoming so great that it is not confined to western states where they live, but it is becoming an object of solicitude to the great national parties. Mormons voted the Republican ticket at the last election. During Cleveland's administration they were all Democrats, and if a Democratic president should be elected in four years from now, they will turn again to the Democratic party. I wish to give my solemn warning to Republicans that they should not be misled into thinking they have allies in the Mormon hierarchy. Mormon hierarchy hopes to have an ally in the Republican party. It would please them equally to have the Democratic party as their ally and to give the Democratic party their support if the Democratic party in power."

"I must say a few words about the Mormon people and their followers. Most of them practice the virtues of industry, thrift, sobriety, honesty, and outside of polygamy, personal virtue. Their articles of faith seem to them to represent all of morality, and the revelations which they believe proceed from time to time, seem to them to set them above all other people in the world."

This afternoon the delegates to the congress made a pilgrimage to Mount Vernon.

HOUSE BURNS

A SCORE OR MORE LIVES LOST

A Crowded Building in New York Takes Fire and Thrilling Scenes are Witnessed in the Efforts to Escape.

New York, March 14.—At least a score of persons were burned to death and several so badly hurt they may die. Forty others received slighter hurts in a fire that practically destroyed a five-story tenement house in Allen street early to day. The fire gained such headway that many tenants were cut off before they could make an attempt to save themselves. Thrilling scenes, daring leaps for life marked the fire. Scores were carried from the blazing building by firemen. Of the bodies recovered only the following have been identified: Rachel Solomon, aged 45; Jacob Solomon, 19, Abraham Solomon, 20 years. Crowded fire escapes in the rear of the tenement were largely responsible for so many casualties.

The fire started in the basement, which was occupied by Isaac Davis, his wife and three children. Davis had been out that night, returning home early, this morning. He went into the store on the same floor, just in time to see a kerosene lamp in the rear explode. He awoke his wife and both tried to put out the burning lamp, but without success. They then gave all their attention to getting their children out of the building.

A policeman who heard the cry of alarm rushed to the scene and every effort was made to arouse the sleeping persons in the house.

The dead: Jesse Chen, aged 15; Rose Weiner, 23; Sander Weiner, 4; Ida Muskowitz, 10; Harry Kauffman, 10; Rose Miller, 4 years, and Morris Miller, an infant.

The victims of to day's disaster were typical east side people. To apparently reckless displays of heroism shown by firemen, policemen and volunteer rescuers alone is due the fact that the list of dead was not greater. The long narrow fire escapes that ran down the building on each of its exposed sides, had been made receptacles for rubbish, all descriptions and in many cases they were little better than useless. It was found also that every fire escape platform on the building had in it a square piece of board which fits into the opening through which the ladder passes. The result of these obstructed escapes was evident when it was found that nearly all the dead belonged on the top floor of the building and were roasted before they were able to reach the ground. Another cause of negligence responsible for loss of some lives, was an immovable skylight at the head of the ladder leading to the roof. Battered severely and partially covered by ice the skylight resisted all efforts to force it and a pile of dead bodies was found under it when the horror was over.

Coroner Goldenkranz declared after investigation that he had reason to believe the blame was the work of an incendiary. He issued subpoenas for the fire marshal, tenant house and building inspectors and health and police officials to appear before him at the inquest which will be held Thursday.

The fire started in the basement and spread with frightful rapidity to the roof. The victims were caught in a trap of flames, halls and exits being rendered impassable in a few minutes after the blaze started. Of the nineteen dead three bodies, those of a boy and two girls, remain unidentified.

TROUBLE NOT OVER.

Warsaw, March 14.—The authorities were unsuccessful in an attempt to remove the commercial and technical schools. The pupils assembled in the class rooms at the regular hour, where they remained a few minutes and then simultaneously marched out. The educational situation is causing much concern. In consequence of the peasant agitation, the censor to day issued an order prohibiting the press from referring to agrarian questions.

ISSUE NEW BONDS.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 14.—At the stockholders' meeting of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, held to day, an issue of new bonds not to exceed $50,000,000 was authorized.

A FOUL CRIME.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 14.—The body of Mary Delina, 4 years old, was found to night in a blacksmith shop. She had been criminally assaulted and murdered. Beside the body was found the 7 years old brother unconscious. It is supposed the boy suffered injuries while attempting to defend his sister.

BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION

The Matter of Interurban Railroads Discussed at Length.

The Business Men's association met last evening in the Wyoming club rooms to discuss the matter of interurban railroads in general and the request of the Alton, Jacksonville & Peoria road in particular. J. B. Crankshaw was present and as engineer of the road was able to answer the questions of the members and explain the objects of the line in general. He said the company had now the engineering work of the line between Alton and Jerseyville and were ready to receive bids and work would doubtless be begun as soon as practicable. It was his intention to go ahead with the survey of the remainder of the line to this place and let the contract as soon as might be. If the road was granted the right of way through the city it was probable that there would be a bond filed requiring the work to be begun within eighteen months and the road to be in running order within three years; possibly the real time would be much less. The road would be constructed after the pattern of the best steam line, with rock ballast, heavy rails and every means for comfort and convenience for the patrons. The line would probably pass along the right of way of the Alton and afford easy access to Nichols park, a consummation devoutly to be wished. There would be a way service making probably twenty miles an hour and stopping at any point to receive passengers and baggage. This would leave the city each hour of the day. A limited service would also be established once in three hours, stopping only at the principal places along the line and reaching St. Louis in three hours after leaving Jacksonville. These cars would be comfortable, fitted with buffet, small baggage compartments and all conveniences for travel. In the city the right of way would be suitably paved and every precaution taken to comply with the law. Heavy rails would be used and a strictly first class line would be constructed.

The railroad committee, J. H. Hackett, chairman, was instructed to investigate the merits of the line and report at the next regular meeting of the city council.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

The Business Men's association of Jacksonville, Ill., regards the project of interurban railroads with great favor. As they supply increased facilities for travel at all times of the year, affording great accommodations for a large number of persons who would otherwise be much handicapped in the means of transportation they must result in largely increased business for the city and great convenience for all persons residing in territory contiguous to the line. The Business Men's association therefore earnestly requests the mayor and the honorable members of the city council to afford all enterprises of this kind every reasonable encouragement within the limits of the law when the said enterprises show themselves worthy of confidence and offer good reasons for being successful if completed.

CENTENARY REVIVAL

The Bible reading Tuesday at 8 p. m., though not quite as well attended on account of the weather, was one of the deepest interest yet held. It was given by the pastor and emphasized the significance of the neglect of salvation and was well calculated to arouse interest in the unsaved.

Church members and the awakened are urged to attend the afternoon meetings and get a better insight into the book which contains God's plan for East State street.

At night Rev. Mr. Rigg preached a searching and eloquent sermon on "The Biggest Blunder," based on Dives, who fared sumptuously. The after service was one of the best of the series. There was one conversion. The testimonies were pointed and effective. The singing of Mr. Rigg was most helpful. Bible reading to day at 3 p. m. Preaching at night.

DANGEROUS VERTIGO

Dizziness or Swimming of the Head Associated With a Sense of Fullness, Dull Pain or Nervous Sick Headache is a Certain Indication of an Oncoming Apoplexy or Paralysis.

DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS

If the person subject to attack of dizziness or swimming of the head, commonly called vertigo, would only stop to realize that these symptoms are not a disease in themselves, but temporary ailments, but the plainest sort of warnings from nature of grave troubles of deeper origin, of an exhausted nervous system or of an oncoming apoplexy, epilepsy or paralysis, the matter would receive prompt attention. Dr. A. W. Chase knows this and provided the cure in his celebrated Nerve Pills, a medicine that brings back the glow of health and strength by its power to furnish just what the body needs; good, rich, wholesome blood and nerve force or energy.

Mr. E. Smith, of No. 1 Union Street, Troy, N. Y., says:

"I used to suffer constantly from nervous headache and dizzy spells. They came on at any time and in any place—I was never safe from them. Stopping over always resulted in vertigo—my head pained me as well. I got a box of Dr. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS and they cured the trouble rapidly, easily and completely. It is the best medicine I ever took. I am as sound as a dollar again in every particular and very glad to recommend it to any one in a similar condition as a safe and certain cure." 50c a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, M. D., on every package. For sale by Lee P. Allcott, Druggists, east-side square, Jacksonville, Ill.

OBITUARY.

James William Ranson was born Aug. 15, 1837, and died March 10, 1906. He was the oldest child of John and Annie Ranson, being born near the Asbury M. E. church and living on his farm west of Franklin, thus he spent all his days among men and the places of his birth.

March 6, 1860, he was married to Beatrice E. Butler, who died Jan. 6, 1896. They had three children: J. Rex, Sarah Anna and Thos. B.

Nov. 10, 1897, he was married to Miss Anna P. Thurbury, who was the mother of two children, Vivian Z. and Clifford T. Mr. Ranson was soundly converted under Rev. W. H. McGhee's pastorate and joined the M. E. church here at Franklin soon after. Those who knew him best know that Jesus will have power to save and help an active busy man. He was a Christian in business, at home and in the church, that he so much loved.

He leaves his parents and two brothers, Samuel of Washington and Charles at home. A faithful wife, besides his five children and a host of friends. When the men that work on his father's farm heard of his death they came to the house and begged permission to dig the grave. He was loved and will be missed in the lodge, the farmers' institutes and gatherings, the public school board, the church, the board of trustees, the sick room and his own bedside, that he so much loved. Yes, he will be missed, but now he rests and can move about as freely as the angels. He is with Jesus. He believed in Him. He let Christ in his character. He lived with Christ and he is now with Him, and while your eyes are dimmed with tears his are lost in the wonders of amazing beauty as he beholds the King.

RAILROAD NEWS NOTES

Burlington Surveyors' Reporters
—Work May Soon Be Commenced on Grade South of Yards—Personal Mention.

A force of Burlington surveyors under Foreman Meade arrived in this city Tuesday morning on the Burlington local freight. They immediately commenced work on the track near the passenger depot and last evening had a number of stakes driven in the ground as markers between the depot and East College avenue. The idea of the company is to take the sharpness out of the curve between the passenger depot and the hill south of this city. The trains coming from the south have difficulty in making the grade near the East State street crossing, as they have to back about a half mile out of the city and start from the hill south of the depot. The company will cut down this grade also. The surveyors expect to be here for several days and it is supposed that the Burlington company will have a force of men at work in a short time making the necessary changes in the track.

The Harris-Hanson company was in this city yesterday and went to Virginia yesterday afternoon via the C. & St. L. on train No. 38.

Mr. Carney, formerly fireman on Burlington trains No. 47 and 48 on this division, has been transferred to the main line. Fireman Vieira is now running on this division.

—(c)—
W. A. Card, trainmaster for the Burlington, spent Tuesday in the city on business interests.

—(c)—
H. G. Faithorn, commercial agent for the Midway Central spent Tuesday in the city with local railroad officials.

—(c)—
A special train carrying an opera company came into this city Tuesday via the Wabash from Quincy. The train was transferred to the C. & St. L. here and was taken on to Peoria. The special was pulled by engine No. 29 and was in charge of Conductor Clark and Engineer Earl.

—(c)—
G. W. Dye, division passenger and freight agent for the Burlington of this city, was calling on the station agents between this city and Centralia yesterday on company business.

Trainmaster L. W. Karnes and Traveling Auditor S. J. Parks of the Wabash, were visitors in the city last evening.

"A TRIP TO AFRICA"

John Larkins, the comedian with "A Trip to Africa," which appeared at the Capital theatre last night, is really a comedian. His make up as King Duvasho apparently is patterned after Williams "In Dahomey." King in the Williams and Walker company, but is very funny, and Larkins is a close second to Williams as a fun maker—Little Rock Daily Capital.

LIQUOR DRINKERS CURED

Whiskey and Beer Habit Cured at Home With No Loss of Time.

Orrine is the only guaranteed cure for the drink habit, can be used at home, and destroys entirely the craving for drink without publicity or loss of time. It quickly removes the craving for intoxicants, steadies the nerves, restores the appetite and gives refreshing sleep.

Ten thousand grateful letters from those who have been cured by Orrine prove its infallible success. It is the only guaranteed cure for the liquor habit and we seek the worst cases in the community in order to prove that Orrine cannot fail. It is prepared in two forms—No. 1, which can be given in tea, coffee or food, without the patient's knowledge, and No. 2, which is for those who desire to be cured. The price of either is $1.00 per box. Sold and recommended by Armstrong & Armstrong.

PARTIALITY OF TRAVELERS.

Experienced travelers are partial to the New York Central lines and their experience accounts for their partiality; the time is the fastest; the parlor, sleeping and dining car service unsurpassed; the motive power and roadbed of the highest standard of excellence. Safety, speed and comfort are the watchwords of the New York Central lines and that they are made good is sufficient reason for the popularity of that great railway system of America.

NOTICE.

To the Citizens of Jacksonville, particularly those of the 4th ward: My term as alderman is almost ended. On Friday evening, at 7:30 in the circuit court room I wish to make my report to you—my principal. I also wish to review somewhat the last two years of our municipal government and make some suggestions touching the future. I shall answer those who have asked me to stand for a re-election. In everything I shall strive to offer something worthy of the thought of decent people.

MATRIMONIAL

WEDDING AT JACKSONVILLE.

Oscar Dillwyn Wood, of New York city, and Miss Mable Ruth Broadwell were quietly married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. William H. Broadwell, 345 West College avenue, Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Rev. R. O. Post, D. D., pastor of the Congregational church, was the officiating clergyman. The bride and groom were unattended and the beautiful marriage service was said in the west parlor, where a bank of foliage plants and palms had been tastefully arranged.

The bride was most becomingly gowned in a handsome creation of lace and carried a bouquet of Marguerites.

The guest list was limited to relatives and immediate friends and after the words of congratulation and best wishes had been extended elegant refreshments were served.

The Broadwell home presented a very pretty appearance on this happy occasion and exquisite taste was exhibited in the decorative effects.

Spring flowers were used exclusively and the severe colonial style was employed in the working out of an idea of perfect harmony and artistic beauty.

The parlor was in yellow and here juncquilillies of the valley and delicately shaded lights made the scene a delightful one. In the drawing room pink was the color scheme and sweet peas and pink tulips with a background of ferns and smilax were effectively arranged. The dining room had a blending of colors, combining the college colors, red and white and blue and white, of the bride and groom. Cornell and Columbia pennants added to the effectiveness of this idea, which was unique. Here red tulips were employed in profusion, while asparagus ferns and smilax also added their charm.

The bride is from one of the most prominent families of Jacksonville and is a young lady of charming and attractive personality. The groom is a well known attorney in the metropolis and comes from a family whose influence has been felt in the Empire state.

Among the out of town guests present were Mrs. W. B. Shaw and daughter, Miss Louise Shaw, of Port Byron, Ill.; Mrs. C. P. Davidson, Miss Margaret Davidson and Charles P. Davidson, Jr., of Scranton, Pa.; Miss Essie Elliott, of Toronto, Canada; George Davidson, of Scranton, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boring, of Decatur, and Miss Jane Broadwell, of Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood departed for the east on the Wabash 8:54 train.

FLORIAN BLAIR.

Newton J. Floyd and Mrs. Nellie B. Blair, both of Mercedosia, were married by Squire Gray Tuesday morning at 11:45 o'clock, at his office and Robert Cox, of Nebraska. Her well known in their home town, where they have many friends.

GAVE CONCERT.

A concert was given in Company I hall last evening by Frank and William Cooper. A large number were present and witnessed the excellent entertainment. P. Harrison opened the concert with several vocal numbers, which were encored a number of times.

One end of the hall was so arranged as to resemble a photograph gallery. Messrs. Kirk and Cooper, who were the main performers of the evening, played a number of selections on different pieces of furniture, such as davenports, photo frames and picture stands. The audience was at first surprised at these unique instruments, but soon recovered and encored them a number of times. After the entertainment several hours were spent in dancing.

CHARGED WITH BANKRUPTCY

JACOB COHEN TAKEN BEFORE UNITED STATES JUDGE

Receiver Now Has Possession of Junk and Scrap Iron Establishment on Lafayette Ave.—Ben Cohen Also Taken—Henry Oakes, Julius E. Strawn and Frank Robertson Are the Petitioners.

Jacob Cohen, the well known junk and scrap iron dealer, and his son, Ben Cohen, were taken by two United States deputy marshals Tuesday afternoon to Springfield to have a hearing before Judge Humphrey, United States district judge. They were taken on a petition filed in the district court by Messrs. Henry Oakes, Julius E. Strawn and Frank Robertson, alleging the bankruptcy of Cohen and reciting other facts to the effect that Cohen is withholding money in his possession, about $25,000, which rightfully should be paid to the petitioners.

Upon arrival in Springfield Mr. Cohen was taken before Judge Humphrey for a preliminary hearing and at six thirty last evening the hearing was adjourned until this morning.

At three-thirty Tuesday afternoon the following deeds were filed for record in the recorder's office:

Jacob Cohen to Benjamin Cohen, warranty deed; $28,000. Lot 4, block 4, city addition to Jacksonville. Also 100 feet of west end lot 25 College Hill addition to Jacksonville. Part lots 63 old plat of Jacksonville, etc., subject to mortgage of $3,500. Book 12, page 132. This deed is made to secure the payment of $28,000 note held by the Jacksonville National bank.

Jacob Cohen to Benjamin Cohen, warranty deed; $6,000. Lots 1 and 2, Littleton's addition.

Jacob Cohen to Fannie Cohen and Emma Ramenofsky, warranty deed; $11,000. Lots 9, 10, 11, and 12, and part 14, William Thomas' addition to Jacksonville, etc.; also lots 7 and 8, Hackett & McClurg's addition. Also lot 4 Dunlap's second addition to Jacksonville. Deed made to secure $11,000 held by Jacksonville National bank.

Two of the above deeds were dated March 6, 1905, and the deed for $28,000 was not dated. The instruments were all acknowledged before Albert Salzenstein, a notary public of Springfield.

Recorder Hayden has been directed to bring these deeds to Springfield for the hearing this morning and Deputy John Rawlings will go to Springfield with the instruments.

The petition was presented to Judge Humphrey Tuesday morning and Marshals Watts and Flynn arrived in the city on the 1:43 train and went at once to the Cohen junk plant on West Lafayette avenue. Mr. Cohen was crossing the Wabash platform just as the marshals alighted from the train and was some distance ahead of them. They accosted him near the corner of Lafayette avenue and North West street and Cohen started to run. The marshals started in pursuit and caught him in the rear of John Pine's saloon on the northeast corner of the above streets.

Ben Cohen was taken while at work in the office and went with the officers without protest. Both Mr. Cohen and his son were taken to the Wabash depot and to Springfield on the 3:15 train.

Capt. J. G. George, who accompanied the marshals from Springfield, was placed in charge of the Cohen establishment and took possession immediately after the arrests had been made. The force of men employed in the yards was discharged at the end of the day's work and the receiver also took charge of the horses and wagons used by the men. The force numbered about fifteen persons.

Captain George was interviewed at the Dunlap hotel last evening, but had little to say for publication. Asked as to the assets and liabilities of the firm, he replied that he had not had time to make an examination. He stated that Mr. Kpler, the bookkeeper of the concern, would be retained for the present and that active operations of the business had ceased with his appointment as receiver.

The facts alleged in the petition filed are substantially as follows:

"That Cohen owed the petitioners above named, together, $27,000; that said indebtedness was long past due and the petitioners had almost daily demanded a settlement of Cohen, which Cohen neglected and refused to make. The petition further alleges that within four months next preceding the date of filing the petition Cohen committed an act of bankruptcy in that he did on or about March 1, 1905, sell and convey a large amount of his personal property, to-wit: scrap iron, rubber, rags and other junk of the value of $25,000 or more, and received the money therefor and concealed the same and refused to pay the same, or any part thereof in liquidation of his indebtedness, and stated that he would keep and use the same for his private use.

A petition of like character was filed against Ben Cohen, as he was signer of the same notes mentioned in the petition against Jacob Cohen.

Mr. Cohen came to Jacksonville about twelve years ago with practically nothing. He engaged in the junk and scrap iron business in a very small way and accumulated means by degrees until he was able to open a small junk shop. This he gradually enlarged. His business continued to grow and soon he leased a large tract of land inside the right of way of the Wabash railway. He soon outgrew these quarters and four or five years ago bought the property on West Lafayette avenue, where his present establishment is located.

He built a large warehouse and at times employed a force of sixty men or more. He has several buyers out all the time and his business is transacted in several states. He bought in large quantities and had the junk shipped to the local yard, where it was sorted and classified and held for a right market. He frequently shipped many car loads a day and his business was an extensive one. His shippings recently have been very large. He has a rating in Bradstreets of $100,000.

In addition to a fine residence property on North Church street, Mr. Cohen owns a number of houses which are rented.

OBITUARY NOTICE.

Flora (Ill.) Journal-Record: Lucia Blamor Bond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bond and granddaughter of Col. R. Smith, was born Oct. 4, 1895, and died Jan. 19, 1905.

Seldom is an entire community saddened by the death of a 9 years old child, but such was the case when little Lucia died. For days friends and acquaintances made inquiries about her and many were the prayers offered for her and that God would spare her, if it were His will; but in His divine providence God took Lucia home and our loss is her gain.

Lucia was a remarkable, an ideal child for one of her age, both physically and mentally. She was honest, generous, respectful, with a sense of justice beyond her years; she was also the possessor of a strong disposition.

To her playmates she was kind and just, to her elders she was respectful and courteous, and to those younger than herself most tender and gentle, hence she was beloved by all ages.

To know her well was to love her, and to be acquainted with her was to admire her.

She was a true little Christian, faithful to her church and Sunday school. Her last well Sunday she was in her place with both school and church, and many now recall her sweet respectful face at the church service. The M. B. school, of which she was a member, has lost a faithful scholar. She will be missed from her class and also on special occasions, when for the past five years she has taken her part in the special programs. She was sick only eleven days, but suffered greatly, was patient and loving to the last.

Her death would have been sad under any circumstances, but was indeed made most sad from the fact that she died with that dreaded contagious disease, scarlet fever, so that loved ones were not permitted to minister to her as they wished so much to do.

Many floral offerings were placed upon her grave, showing the esteem and sympathy of loved ones and friends.

"Little children who love their Redeemer are the jewels, precious jewels, His loves and His own."

Was sung at her grave, and Lucia will be one of the brightest jewels in heaven, as she was one of the sweetest children on earth.

The ladies of the city are invited to attend the opening of the Pearce Millinery Co. Tuesday, March 21, 1905.

The Good Effect of Good Clothes.

The story is told of a certain society lady that whenever she felt depressed or gloomy, she would array herself in her most expensive finery, and presto! gloom took wing and the sunshine of good cheer entered in its place. This woman knew that the members of her sex are always in a happy frame of mind when they are exceedingly well groomed, and reasoning backward, she drew up this law: "If you have the Blues, dress up." The thought may seem far-fetched to some at first glance, but look at it from another point of view and it will not appear so. Haven't you, dear reader, bought a garment that seemed to fit your desires as well as your figure, only to discover in a few days that your judgment had misled you? That the garment had lost all its glamor and didn't fit so well as you thought? And what was the effect on you? Surely a depression of spirits, a loss of cheer—a case of the blues. That is the natural effect—if one is human. On the other hand, you may have bought a garment of beauty that proved to be a joy even unto the day when it was replaced by a newer style. The effect of such a garment was to gladden your heart with a happiness that came fresh every day. It is reasonable to suppose that the maker of a garment that so fully met your desires IS THE ONE to do so again, and so you look for a certain label or brand or mark that identifies the product. It is by this process that the WORTH SKIRT became a name to conjure with. The WORTH SKIRT has always reflected an admirable blending of fit and beauty—an irreproachable mastery of style. Its lines are so firm and sure as to spell dignity and it fits the figure so faultlessly as to become a gracious harmony of all beholders. The satisfaction of a gracefully rounded figure and the distinguished bearing produced by a WORTH SKIRT is revealed by the wearer in the sparkle of the eye and the buoyancy of the step—so easily are we influenced. The COMFORT derived by the wearer of a WORTH SKIRT makes it doubly delightful and the REASONABLE PRICE deserves more than perfunctory notice.

The drawing on this page is an actual reproduction of one of the popular Worth Skirts for spring. We are exclusive selling agents.

MOTHERHOOD

How To Gain The Happiness of Children

Motherhood is woman's highest sphere in life. It is the fruition of her dearest hopes and most holy desires. Yet thousands of noble women, through the derangement of the female generative organs brought on by female weakness and disease, are unable to produce children!

Ninety-nine times out of every one hundred Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will so restore and strengthen the female organism as to make child bearing possible, easy, and safe.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

with its record of thousands of cures, is the remedy for women. Thousands of women are happy mothers of beautiful children to-day because in time of need they took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No matter what your female weakness or disease, it will afford you speedy relief and cure. Every woman who desires to become a mother should read these letters:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I had been married seven years and had no children, owing to a female weakness and womb trouble, which caused me severe suffering each month. A lady advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did so, and now I have no more pains and am perfectly well, besides having a fine baby boy. Mrs. Rosa F. KAREL, Ravenna, Neb.

Another happy and grateful mother writes to Mrs. Pinkham as follows:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I was very anxious for a child, but could not carry one to maturity. My husband advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and soon began to feel better in every way. I continued its use, and was enabled to carry my next child to maturity. I now have a nice baby girl, and I feel like a new woman. Mrs. FRANK BEYER, 22 S. Second St., Meriden, Conn.

Actual sterility in woman is very rare. If any woman thinks she is sterile, let her write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., whose advice is given free to all would-be and expectant mothers. Her letter will give you valuable information.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION

"William Morris, Master Workman" Discussed by Prof. Zuehlbin Tuesday Evening at High School Building.

A large audience gathered at the high school last evening to hear the lecture of Prof. Chas. Zuehlbin on "Wm. Morris, Master-Workman." The lecture was advertised as one which would be of special interest to those who labor, and quite a number of such were in the audience, who have not been regular attendants of the course.

Mr. Zuehlbin introduced his subject with a comprehensive sketch of the early life and environments of Morris, of his meeting in Oxford, whither he had gone to study divinity, Edward Jones, a boy from a lower rank of society, who was there on the same mission and how a warm friendship had sprung up between them. They both abandoned their intended calling, and pledged their lives of art—Jones, who afterwards became Sir Edward Burne-Jones, to painting, and Morris to architecture.

Morris the speaker characterized as the "greatest worker of the 19th century." His work in architecture, poetry, literature, painting, and finally "designing and decorating" were reviewed in order, it being shown that in any line to which he turned his energies, he made a marked success. He deserves the greatest credit not for the quality of the work he did especially, for better has been done since, and was done before his time, but for the fact that he boldly returned to original methods of work, the methods which produced honest and lasting results. For instance, he renewed the art of staining glass and of weaving tapestries in both instances going back to the period at which these crafts were at their best to learn methods. He also went back to the old methods of dyeing with vegetable colors in order to secure the perfect and lasting results. In this way he laid the foundation for beauty in every day life.

The vital portion of the lecture was then entered upon, the gospel of work according to Wm. Morris. He said: "It is right and necessary that all men should have work to do—work worth doing—work in itself pleasant to do—work under such conditions as would make it neither over-wearisome nor over-anxious." A man should not be asked to wear out his life making things that only a fool would desire, something to catch the idle fancy for a fleeting moment. In regard to the decoration of homes the motto of Morris was: "Have nothing in your houses you do not know to be useful, or believe to be ornamental." Morris' belief naturally turned him to socialism, and among his comrades he was as the most humble, distributing tracts with his own hand, and in every way making himself as one with those who shared his beliefs.

This conviction of what a state should be was given utterance in the expression that "in a properly ordered state of society every man willing to work should be insured honorable and fitting work, a healthy and beautiful house and full leisure for rest of mind and body."

Prof. Zuehlbin was delayed in reaching the city as the result of a late train, and consequently the lecture began so late that at its close the regular class was dispensed with.

DEATH RECORD

Mrs. Julia Ann Cox died at her home three miles north of Winchester, Scott county, Tuesday evening, at 5 o'clock, at the age of 87 years, 4 months and 13 days. Her late sickness was of short duration, as she was confined to her bed only since last Friday.

Her maiden name was Bobbitt, and she had spent the greater portion of her life in Scott county, raising a large family, her husband, Wm. G. Cox, having been killed while serving in the country in the union army during the civil war.

Funeral services will be conducted from the residence at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Marion Tucker, colored laborer from Vandalia, Mo., who has been working in this city for about three months, died Tuesday afternoon from an abscess of the brain. He was about 23 years of age.

Relatives of the young man were notified of the death, but it is not known as yet what disposition will be made of the remains.

FUNERALS

The funeral of Mrs. Leila Watta was conducted from the residence of her mother, Mrs. George Wyatt, on Hackett avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in charge of Rev. J. O. Derrick.

The remains were taken to Jacksonville cemetery for interment. The bearers were John Caldwell, Warren Bryant, Henry Williams and William Boyd.

The Roach printing office is now removed to 225 S. Main St.

PUBLIC SALE

The Mike Boddy sale held near Markham attracted a fair sized crowd Tuesday and good prices prevailed. The bidding was at all times spirited. The total proceeds of the sale amounted to $2,000. Col. Chas. H. Taylor was the auctioneer and John W. Lazenby acted as clerk.

A SEVERE COLD FOR THREE MONTHS. The following letter from A. J. Nusbaum, of Batesville, Ind., tells its own story: "I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared me some medicine, and a physician prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I then tried Foley's Honey and Tar, and eight doses cured me." Refuse substitutes. For sale by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

Martin Daniels, who was injured in St. Louis while working for the Adams Express company, is still confined to the house, but his condition is improving.

HIGH SCHOOL HONORS

Have Been Announced—Graduating Class Held Meeting Tuesday when Commencement Plans Were Perfected.

The honors for the class of 1905 in the Jacksonville high school have been announced as follows: First Latin honor, Miss Ruth Fairbank; first German honor, Miss Ruth Brown; English honor, Lloyd McKinney.

At a meeting of the class Tuesday afternoon the following were elected to represent the class, together with the honor pupils, at the commencement exercises: Miss Carrie Dunlap, Carl Warner and Miss Marie Scott.

The class this year is rather small, numbering only thirty-seven graduates against more than fifty last year. It is what is known as an off year in the school, but will be more than offset by an unusually large class next year.

The averages are made from the work in recitation and examination for the four years in the high school and are unusually high. Eight of the class show an average of 90 per cent or better, while a number of others are close to that mark. Miss Fairbanks, who receives the first honor in the Latin division, has an average of 92-17-20 per cent, while Miss Carrie Dunlap is second, with 92-41-34 per cent—an unusually close second. Miss Brown, who ranks highest among the pupils of the German section, has an average of 90-33-40 per cent, and Mr. McKinney, highest of the English course, 88-10-17 per cent.

EXCITING RUNAWAY

Team Ran Madly Up West State Street Tuesday Morning—Dr. Day and Frank Williams Thrown From Vehicles—Es cape Injury.

Dr. J. A. Day was implicated in a runaway accident Tuesday shortly before noon which exhibited some spectacular features, but did not result in serious injuries to any of the several persons affected. A team he was driving on West State street about 11 o'clock became frightened at a vegetable wagon at the corner of Prairie street, and becoming uncontrollable ran up State street to Prospect, where they ran into a rig driven by Frank Williams, throwing both Mr. Day and Mr. Williams from their vehicles. Continuing out of town on the Strawn road the team ran down a rig driven by a man by the name of Morris, smashing the vehicle and throwing the occupant out. This did not stop the animals, who continued in their flight, running around a hay wagon and upsetting another rig, throwing out its occupant also, and finally stopping about two miles west of the city, where they were taken up and brought to town. The team is the property of D. E. Kennedy and had never before run away.

Dr. Day hired the rig and a black team at the Kennedy barn to drive to Winchester on professional business, and was driving along West State street near Prairie street, when he passed a vegetable wagon. The horses evidently became frightened at this outfit and began to run. The driver lost control of the team and they continued up State street, partly on the street car track. Mr. Williams was driving west in front of the residence of Mrs. Carter and was unaware of the approaching team. Dr. Day shouted to him and he pulled up, thinking somebody wished to speak to him, and looking around saw the runaway bearing down upon him. He pulled to the curb, but was too late, as the front wheels of Dr. Day's rig struck the rear wheel of the buggy he occupied, throwing him upon the pavement, and throwing Dr. Day clear of the pavement to the boulevard. Mr. Williams was momentarily stunned, but soon recovered himself and saw Dr.

Day lying on the boulevard apparently unconscious. He also revived almost immediately, and taking the next street car the two men went to Dr. Day's office, where the latter dressed the injuries of Mr. Williams, which consisted of a cut on the head and a wrench of the neck. Dr. Day was himself badly shaken up and suffered a sprained thumb and a cut on the right wrist.

Mr. Williams' horse ran for a short distance up State street, where he was stopped by a woman.

The extent of the injuries to the persons involved in the further flight of the team was not learned. The horses were uninjured, while their rig was only slightly damaged.

TUESDAY CLUB.

The East Side Tuesday club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Baldwin on South Clay avenue. There was a very good attendance and the program, consisting of two papers, proved to be subjects of much interest along the line which they are now studying. Mrs. Dennis Schram read a paper on William II, and Mrs. Rapp one on "German Home Life." The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Newman on east State street.

The first prize, the dandy Buck's Junior Range, was won by Genevieve Sehy. The second prize, the hand painted cup and saucer, was won by Beulah Smith. The third prize, the pretty picture, was won by Ila Weatherford.

HERE ARE THE "TEN REASONS WHY" THAT WON FIRST PRIZE

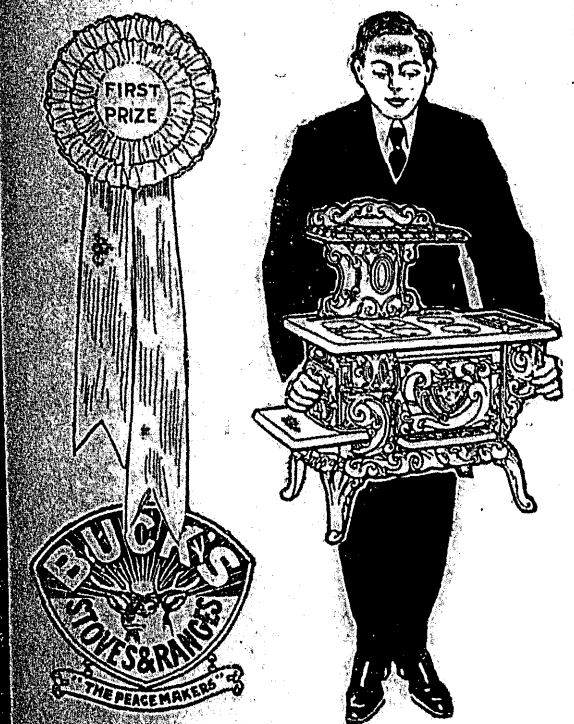

- 1st. Because Buck's Ranges are made with the best material that can be procured, as all the covers and top of stove are made of the best grey iron, which is the strongest and most durable for stoves and ranges and the tops are made in sections, which allows for expansion and contraction.
- 2d. Because Buck's Ranges are made by the most skilled and experienced workmen.
- 3d. Because Buck's Ranges are full and heavy nickel plated, which makes them very beautiful and attractive in appearance.
- 4th. Because Buck's Ranges have white enameled oven doors and racks, which makes them very easy to keep neat and clean and which also retards and reflects the heat.
- 5th. Because Buck's Ranges are lined throughout with heavy sheets of asbestos, which retains the heat inside the range, which makes it bake quick and even and which would otherwise be lost by radiation.
- 6th. Because Buck's Ranges have genuine duplex grates by which the coal can burn hard, soft coal or wood and also has a hot blast fire box which admits air through the sides and bottom grate and lining which makes the most perfect combustion for coal and also keeps the lining from burning out and saves one-third of the fuel.
- 7th. Because Buck's Ranges have extra large enameled reservoir with flush top, which gives one-third more room on top of range.
- 8th. Because Buck's Ranges have extra large steel ash pan, with a bail which will hold all the ashes made in 24 hours' use; the damper rod is so protected that it will not warp or burn out; the feed pouch is the very largest and cleanest and most convenient made.
- 9th. Because Buck's Ranges have a nice large warming closet, with roll top, which gives full opening when open and also has shelves on back for holding tea pot and plates.
- 10th. Because Buck's Ranges are sold under a positive guarantee by the Buck's stove and Range company to be perfect in every way and give the very best satisfaction if the Range is set to a chimney which is not defective.

THESE "TEN REASONS WHY" WON SECOND PRIZE

- 1st. Every user of a "Buck's" range enthusiastically recommends it to all their friends. If they were not everything that they were claimed to be they would have been found out.
- 2d. It is really a "thing of beauty"; therefore must be a "joy forever," as it is made of the most durable material.
- 3d. The arrangement of the oven is far superior to that of any other range, as it not only keeps the heat in, but also reflects it, thus doubling its value. The white enamel lining gives its cleanliness and purity.
- 4th. The oven is so ventilated as to make it bake more evenly. It is so enameled as to make it sanitary, clean and satisfactory, also a money saving oven.
- 5th. It is so braced as to prevent deflection and give strength to the key plates. It also has an arch which is used where great strength is needed.
- 6th. It has a lining of asbestos, which holds the heat in the oven, thus preventing it from being lost in radiating into the room. The same lining is used for burning both wood and coal.
- 7th. The firebox has a hot blast lining, which holds the heat, and in that way saving 33-1/3 per cent less fuel than any other range made.
- 8th. The chimney draft is so arranged as to prevent the gas from being forced up the flue before it is consumed and in that way saving fuel.
- 9th. The reservoir is extra-large and strong, it is white enamel and has much greater capacity than others. The top also is flush with the range top, giving a greater space for setting vessels and etc.
- 10th. "Buck's" has an extra large ash pan which has only to be emptied once a day; ash guards are so placed over the pan that all ashes are forced into pan, instead of the bottom of range.

THESE "TEN REASONS WHY" WON THIRD PRIZE

- 1st. The "Buck's" Range is a handsome piece of kitchen furniture and so much better than all other ranges.
- If you want to see a stove with fame. Go to Andre & Andre and see a "Buck's" Range. It will please you so that tongue cannot tell. Until it is placed in your kitchen and tried very well.
- 2d. The "Buck's" Stoves and Ranges are made from the best of material, so attractive in appearance, with its nickeling and graceful style, it pleases one more every time they look at it. All top covers and center pieces are made in sections to allow for expansion and contraction.
- "Buck's" Ranges are money savers, for the reason they burn less fuel than any other range. As all the gas is consumed by the use of ventilated linings and heavy sheets of asbestos the heat is retained and radiates the heat into the oven instead of the room.
- 3d. The large white enameled ovens are so nice and easy to keep clean, bakes pasties evenly, a roast will always be juicy and not shrink or lose flavor, which means a really self-baster, as a name for the "Buck's" oven. Enough cannot be said in praise of them.
- 4th. The warming closet on the "Buck's" Ranges are worth so much. It is so easy to get at, can always be kept clean and is nice to keep meals warm for persons delayed at dining hours, tea shelves being attached to keep tea or coffee pots on. What a pleasure for a delayed one to come in and find their meals warm by keeping them in the large closets that are placed so safely on the "Buck's" Ranges.
- 5th. Any one who wants hot water at any hour should have "Buck's" Ranges, as they are provided with water heaters either straight or L-shaped and can be connected to a pressure boiler. The water heating capacity should please any housewife, and they are also provided with large white enameled reservoir for hot water where the boiler attachment cannot be had.
- 6th. The "Buck's" Ranges are so nicely fitted with ash pans that it saves great annoyance to the one who has the ashes to empty, for the reason they are large and hold all burned for 24 hours instead of having to be emptied twice a day. And the ashes are forced in the pan by a steel guard instead of the ash pile on the floor when the door is opened.
- 7th. The grates in the "Buck's" Ranges are genuine, burn either soft or hard coal or wood if desired by reversing the bottom grate. All with so much ease and no wasted time for changing linings and grates.
- 8th. The damper handles are so protected that the rod is not heated and will not warp and get out of order in fact the "Buck's" Ranges are so constructed with their asbestos and white enameled linings and their beautiful decoration of nickel platings and so easy kept cleaned and polished that it should give our mamma and all other ladies much pleasure to cook on such a stove as the famous "Buck's" Ranges.
- 9th. Last of all, is the recommendation that the "Buck's" Ranges received from all users and the guarantee and warranty that the company gives who has not the best and most reasonable priced stoves and ranges before the public for fifty-eight years should convince any mamma, lady or gentleman that "Buck's" Range is the one to purchase in preference to all others.
